DON'T SMOKE

Diving and smoking don't mix.

COCO ISLAND COSTA RICA, C.A.

Where the extraordinary ...

... is the ordinary.

Spotting a hammerhead is an experience most divers only dream about. Diving with a school of them close enough to capture on film is beyond most of our imaginations. On the world's largest uninhabited island, just 260 miles off the coast of Costa Rica, fantasies like this materialize out of the blue ... almost every day.

Coco Island. You can't fly there. And there are no hotels. But you can travel first class ... on the luxury live-aboard OKEANOS AGGRESSOR.

Coco Island and OKEANOS AGGRESSOR. The ultimate dive adventure,
